Musical Workshop and Concert Celebration Scheduled in Monroe

Monroe-West Monroe, LA – The Southwestern Diocese Music Workshop and Concert is scheduled for January 23-25 in Monroe, LA. This year’s theme is “Celebrating Our Heritage Through Music” and is open to all directors, musicians, and choir directors.

The workshop is led by Music Workshop Clinician Elder Chris Taylor and begins with a reception and rehearsal Friday evening at the Comfort Suites, the host hotel. Rehearsals begin Saturday morning with a concert scheduled Saturday evening at 7 pm at Richwood Junior High School, 5855 Hwy. 165 South in Monroe. The concert is free and the public is both invited and encouraged to attend.

This event also celebrates Founder, Bishop Charles Price Jones of the Church of Christ (Holiness) USA. Bishop Jones was a hymnologist who wrote over 1,000 hymns that are sung world-wide.

Workshop registration is available at the door. The cost is $20 for Adults (17 & up) and $10 for Students (ages 5-16).
